NORWAY AND VICINITY
Irving Perreault came to the village, Tuesday, from Crockett's bridge by boat. The channel in the bog is open to the dry landing.
Busy time with tickets. With the minstrels, the senior play and Chapman's own old running together, our people are making close friendships with advance sales and solicitors. Business is booming.

One of the largest cedar bolts brought to any mill in the vicinity in years was hauled to Prescott & Perreault's shingle mill, Tuesday. The timber measured 24 in. in diameter and was brought in on the saw which fell during Monday night.

Arrangements have been made by Moore with the costumer in Haverhill, Mass., to send a complete outfit for the Minstrel show which can be held over Saturday night. The original costumes engaged could be retained only until Saturday morning.

Freeland Bolster opened his marble shop, March 1, with Virgil Flood, foreman. Mr. Flood started as an apprentice in the same shop, twenty-five years ago, and knows the marble business from beginning to end.

The Browning Reading Club will meet Monday evening, March 21, with Mrs. Mary Cole. The program will include roll call, quotations from modern poets and a paper, Modern Poetry, by Mrs. H. L. Bartlett.

Prof. W. B. Mitchell of Bowdoin College will occupy the pulpit at the Congregational church, Sunday.
Frank Moore of Portland, agent for the Metropolitan Insurance Co., was in town, Sunday, visiting his brothers. He will sing with the Imperial Quartette in the choir and read a solo during the first part of the show, Friday and Saturday evenings.

Elgin A. Greenleaf, son of Harry A. Greenleaf, is employed at Greenleaf's Garage in the Willard Service Station. Some 500 batteries have been overhauled and cared for by the winter.

Everett Record, a traveling salesman for J. S. Record Co., who has been over an extended route, was in town the first of the week.
The section crews have been relaying the rails and in the station yard where the frost has left the ground.

The Norway Branch combination coach is in the repair shop and a smaller car is on the line. A freight car carries the express.
L. M. Longley & Son have a new carved, letter gold leafed sign, changed from Longley & Bates to the new company.

The patience of Job was exemplified Monday by the faithful who held down the platform steps outside the American Legion rooms. Advance sale of Minstrel tickets was to begin at 7 p. m., the crowd reinforced to gather shortly after noon.

People were in line at 5 p. m. Great was the rush at the appointed hour when humanity stampeded and went plumb crazy to reach the ticket board. Percy Y. Fogg handled the exchange and checked 24 seats in one hour and a quarter. Norway Opera House was sold out, the first time on an advance sale in its history. Insurance regulations limit the attendance to 800. Enough extra seats were carried in from Concert Hall after the sale to reach the limit. These were checked Tuesday evening at Stone's to patrons' record after the show on the Monday evening sale.

George F. Ames is recovering from numerous boils on his neck and returned as driver for one of the C. B. Cummings & Sons Co. teams.

NORWAY, ME. FRIDAY, MARCH 18, 1921.

VOLUME LII

Mrs. Florence Agnes Kimball
Mrs. Florence A. Kimball, widow of Alfred S. Kimball, passed away suddenly Friday evening at 10.40, having suffered an apoplectic shock late in the afternoon. Her age was 78 years, 11 months, 26 days. She was in excellent health and the end came as a shock to the community.

She was the daughter of Calvin Houghton, and Marie Antoinette (Billings) Houghton, born in Waterford, March 15, 1847. After completing a course at Bridgton Academy she married Alfred S. Kimball at Waterford on April 29, 1866 and they settled in the home town where Mr. Kimball was soon recognized as a rising young lawyer.

They came to Norway in October, 1882 where she has since resided, living many years at her late home on Highland Ave. Mrs. Kimball was a member of the Norway Universalist Church, a charter member of Mt. Hope Rebekah Lodge, No. 58, Norway, and an honored member of the Barton Reading Club. She was exceedingly interested in the opportunity offered women through the ballot and voted the Democratic ticket. Ever quiet and reserved, her work was constructive and for the good of the community and town at all times.

The deceased is the last survivor of three sisters, who were Mrs. Abbie M. Bailey, widow of the late Giles O. Bailey, for many years editor and proprietor of the Portland Sunday Times, and Mrs. Clara A. Noble, widow of Capt. Herbert A. Noble of the Massachusetts volunteers in the Civil War, later for many years a bookkeeper in Boston. Her husband passed away at Norway several years ago. She is survived by one son, Morton L. Kimball, attorney at law, at Norway, and a grandson, Houghton Kimball.

Rev. Chester G. Miller, pastor of the Universalist Church, conducted the funeral services at the home Sunday afternoon, March 13, at 1-30 p. m. The bearers were Irving E. Brown, M. W. Sampson, Frank E. DeCoster and Ernest C. Murch. The remains were buried beside her late husband in Elm Vale Cemetery at South Waterford.

Mrs. Owen P. Brooks
Mrs. Elvira P. Brooks, wife of Owen P. Brooks, died at her home, Saturday morning, March 12, from the results of a paralytic shock. She was stricken on Feb. 25, and a few days later a second shock caused her to fall rapidly, being in a state of coma before the end. Her age was 49 years.

Mrs. Brooks was born in Yarmouth, Nov. 8, 1871, the daughter of Samuel and Ellen (Ross) Groves. She was educated at Yarmouth High school and at the Yarmouth Normal School.

She married Owen P. Brooks at Norway, in April, 1893, and for a number of years lived in the Brooks homestead on Pike Hill. Fifteen years ago they built a fine residence on Pleasant street, where she has since resided.

Mrs. Brooks was a member of the Mother church of Christian Science of Boston and had been First Reader in the local society for a number of years. She was deeply interested in the Near East Child's Relief and had saved a considerable sum which she had in readiness to give. As the solicitor appeared she undertook to solicit funds and was appointed as the representative of Norway. She was more than successful, securing over $100 in excess of the quota for Norway, which was $540. This work she had just completed when taken ill.

Beside her husband she leaves four brothers and two sisters, Samuel O. Groves of Freeport, Mrs. Emma Mansfield of Portland, Thaxter and John Groves of Boston, Luther Groves of Boston and Mrs. Blanche Tubbs, wife of James N. Tubbs, Norway.

The funeral was held Monday afternoon, from her late home on Pleasant street, attended by Charles Leavitt, First Reader of the State Street Christian Science church in Portland. The bearers were her brothers. Interment in Pine Grove Cemetery.

Surprise Party
Wednesday afternoon, March 9, regular school, a dozen or more young kiddies gave a surprise and birthday party to Gardener Goodwin, son of Mr. and Mrs. Elden S. Goodwin, at his home on Paris street.

The birthday cake was made by Mrs. Goodwin, the mother, who is an artist round a cook stove, and it contained seven candles. The kiddies passed a very pleasant afternoon in music and games. Cake, popcorn, candy fudge and ice cream was served by Mrs. Goodwin assisted by her niece, Lulu M. Goodwin.

A party of good speeches were made by Patsy Bassett, and the pleasant party came to a close with a few remarks made by Master Gardener Goodwin, thanking them for their surprise, and also for the gifts.

Pastor Called
At the adjourned parish meeting of the Second Congregational church, Thursday evening, it was voted to extend a call to Rev. O. E. Barnard of Winslow to become the pastor of the church.

Mr. Barnard has accepted the call and will begin his pastorate here the 10th of April.

Frank W. Fance has cast aside the cane and walks unaided. He fell from his roof several weeks ago, injuring his ankle.

Business has been resumed at the Norway Shoe Co. with a fair number of the regular employees at work.

The athletic committee at the high school has a basketball schedule arranged. Clayton Purington was elected captain at the end of the spring series, and Chas. F. Cummings was chosen manager early this year. Numerous candidates will be given a try-out and a good team should be assembled, using several players from last year for a nucleus.

Lowell Cleveland is moving his family back on his farm on Scriber Hill, Otisfield, for the summer. They have been spending the winter with Mrs. Mary Cleveland on Summer street.

George Boutwell has moved his family into one of the Cummings rents on Whitman street after completing his engagement at Bisbetown.

Dr. and Mrs. Chas. I. Fogg, who have been spending the winter with their son at South Paris, are preparing to return home, as will soon occupy their premises at the Falls.

The bride was becomingly gowned in a dress of white Georgette with satin trimmings and wore a veil of tulle caught with orange blossoms, and carried a bouquet of white roses. She was attended by her friend, Leola Harrison; the best man was Harold McKinney, both of Lowell.

Mr. and Mrs. Salles left for a few weeks' visit in Boston, Mass., Burlington, Vermont, and vicinity, and on their return will go to housekeeping at 23 Oak street, Lowell. They were the recipients of many pretty and useful gifts.

A surprise party was given Thursday evening by Pearl Cook, in honor of Ruth Carroll, whose marriage to Burton A. Shaw of Sanford was recently announced.

Miss Carroll was invited to spend the evening at the home of Miss Cook. The light was flashed on as they entered the room and Miss Carroll found seated about the dining table 17 of her friends.

A delicious supper was served by Miss Cook, assisted by her mother, Mrs. A. L. Cook. The dining room was decorated in pink with streamers suspended from the center dome and the many beautiful favors were covered with pink flowers and the favors were dainty baskets filled with nuts. The place cards were unique and suggestive of the occasion, a bride and groom alternating at the places. Covers were laid for 18. The party began with a bride and groom in Kewpie. A table in one corner of the room was filled with packages suggestive of mystery. In the center was a large basket trimmed with the pink flowers carrying many articles.

The guest of honor removed the wrappings and discovered many beautiful gifts. Considerable amusement was had from the kitchen utensils carrying an original verse. The animal book caused much sport. Games and stunts filled a most enjoyable evening which ended with sincere congratulations to the bride-elect and many happy wishes for the future.

Those in the gathering were Mrs. Albert L. Clark, Mrs. Fred S. Smith, Mrs. Homer Luck, Tessa R. Thibodeau, Mrs. Howard Maxin, Mrs. Annie Sessions, Mrs. Stephen J. Clark, Mrs. George V. Sanborn, Frances Barst, Charlotte Lovejoy, Mrs. H. Knox Bickford, Beatrice Stone, Helen Holmes, Maude Miller, Mollie Downing, the guest of honor, Miss Carroll, and the hostess.

The supper at the Congregational church, Wednesday evening, under the auspices of the Christian Endeavor Society was well attended and over $27.00 cleared. A short entertainment followed the supper including piano solos by Alice Bartlett and a tableau representing seven stages of life. Mrs. H. L. Bartlett read the poem and the parts taken by the young people, which proved amusing and interesting. A sociable with games followed.

Minstrels Must Show Two Nights

At the opening of the ticket board Monday evening for the American Legion Minstrel, Norway Opera House, was checked to the regular seating capacity and no seats left for transients or two hundred or more tickets sold in advance, and not checked when the sale closed abruptly.

Numbered checks were issued the disappointed ones for a chance at the extra 125 seats to be installed, making 800 the total number allowed under the insurance regulations. This sale was scheduled for Tuesday evening at Stone's.

So great was the demand for another show, that the committee decided to give two performances, namely on Friday and Saturday evenings. Doors open at 7:30, curtain at 8:15 on both evenings. It will be possible to hold the carnival Friday evening only, but Saturday evening patrons will have complete minstrel program when the comedians will sprinkle new material with their regular line of chatter.

The second show is put on at a big expense, and considerable inconvenience to the Legion and participants. Rather than disappoint a large patronage, everybody concerned will sprinkle new things to help the Legion and citizens to meet an unusual situation.

Through a misunderstanding among the committees two prices were set for the balcony, when a flat price was the last decision. This caused a little confusion during the checking, but the majority understood the situation as an unfortunate incident common to any entertainment organization catering to large business.

Putting a show of this magnitude in shape means hours of hard work. The Legioners and others have labored day and night to see this across with flying colors and they have completed a good job.

The Legioners have generously agreed to refund the advance over the advertised prices for certain rows in the balcony if after seeing the show Friday evening any patron is dissatisfied with the entertainment. This is a fair offer, and the public will surely appreciate the spirit in which it is made.

A check book for Saturday evening was opened Tuesday evening at Stone's with a good number of seats drawn. Indications point to a large house on the last night.

"Safety First" Next
The N. H. S. senior play, "Safety First" will be presented at Norway Opera House, Friday evening, March 25. This is a modern play with a suburban setting in three acts. The lines and business are full of laughing and sniggering which a carefully selected cast will interpret under the coaching of Harold Anderson, who has staged successfully the school plays during the past few years.

Curtain at 8:15 sharp. Cast:
Jack Montgomery.....Charles F. Cummings
Bert Arnold.....Stephen J. Cummings
Mr. McNair.....Raymond E. Winslow
Miss Ben Mocha.....Marion Welch
Mabel Montgomery.....Rose Merrill
Miss Brier.....Elizabeth Klein

Dancing will follow the show. Tickets checked at Stone's Monday, March 21.

STOP THAT ACHE!

Don't worry and complain about a bad back. Get rid of that pain and lameness! Use Doan's Kidney Pills. Many Norway people have used them and know how effective they are. Ask your neighbor! Here's a Norway case.

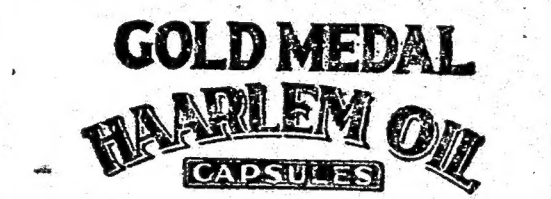

E. C. Libby, tax collector, Sanborn St. says: "I had a great deal of backache and it annoyed me to do anything. Not only this, but my head ached and I noticed little specks floating before my eyes and my sight blurred. I used different remedies but it was left to Doan's Kidney Pills to give me lasting results. I got Doan's Kidney Pills at the Stone's Drug Store. Since using Doan's I have had no return of the kidney complaint and naturally I place great confidence in this remedy." (Statement given June 6, 1916.)

On September 3, 1920 Mr. Libby said: "I haven't had occasion to use Doan's Kidney Pills or any other kidney medicine since being cured by Doan's in 1916. My faith in this remedy is just as strong to-day as when I first endorsed them."

Price 60c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mr. Libby had. Foster-Milburn Co., Mfrs., Buffalo, N. Y. 11-12

EAST WATERFORD

Your correspondent will be glad to renew your subscription at any time, also to receive new ones.

The East Waterford circle has recently held two pleasant meetings—one at Mrs. L. E. McIntire's, the other at Mrs. C. H. Pride's. We plan in the near future to have a circle dinner at the schoolhouse, the proceeds to go to the starving children of Europe.

Harold S. Pike, one of our enterprising and hard working farmers, has made a small start toward a pure-bred herd of Guernseys. He has recently purchased the registered Guernsey cow "Camber no. 2" of Arthur L. Deering of Orono. This sire has 34 advanced registered daughters, and is known among Guernsey breeders as one of the best in New England.

Attended Inauguration
The following letter is from M. H. Pingree of Baltimore, Maryland:
"In acknowledging the receipt of a copy of your paper, for which I thank you, I beg to contribute a little item of news that may be of interest to your readers in the vicinity of Denmark and Bridgton. Early last week my mother, Mrs. Edwin Pingree, and her granddaughter, Edith, daughter of Rev. George H. Woodward, arrived here on a visit, but intent on witnessing the inauguration of Harding and Coolidge on March 4th. The unusually pleasant weather for this season at this time of year, it being clear and cold, made it possible for them to carry out their plans, and their observations of the inauguration supplemented by mine briefly are as follows: Capitol Hill never was more impressive than at noon on that day. The great dome with the flags at half mast was a fitting emblem of respect to the great statesman, one the ex-speaker who had just died, the other the passing of the executive to private life in a broken state of health.

"The great throng that gathered in front of the capitol to witness the oath taking by the incoming president was extremely quiet and serious. But the scene finally changed, the great flag at the front was raised to the staff head and he who is to be our leader for four years came forward receiving the oath of office. The serious and forceful message which he then delivered brought new light and new hope for a strong man, our national leader, had pledged himself to do justly, to love mercy, and to walk humbly with his God."

Mr. Penfold is talking of moving to South Paris for a time. It is thought the fresh country air will do more for him than the medical treatments have.

HEBRON

Mrs. Mary J. Given
Mrs. Mary J. Given died Tuesday morning, March 8, aged about eighty-five years. Her death came after a short illness. She was the widow of A. P. Given. She is survived by a daughter, Mrs. Belle Harrington, with whom she made her home, and a son, Ed. Given of West Minot. Less than two weeks ago her son-in-law, Ward W. Harrington died after several weeks' illness.

We are always interested in the records of our rural delivery mail carriers. During the winter months, one of the most important events of the day, in many of our farm houses, is the arrival of the R. F. D. Our carrier, A. A. Conant, has been on the Hebron route, nineteen years the coming July, or since July 1, 1902. He has driven enough miles to go around the world five times and about a thousand miles to his credit on the sixth trip. There have been one hundred and twenty-seven deaths on the route since he started. He has missed very few trips, on account of sickness or bad roads, always going if the roads are passable. We think he has a record hard to be beaten.

THE COUNTRY GENTLEMAN

Like the Grange, this big, National Farm Weekly will give you service out of all proportion to its low cost. Each week it demonstrates the tested methods of successful farmers. It comments in unmistakable terms on what happens in the dark between producer and consumer; and points clearly to the benefits derived from turning on the light. It stands four square behind every farmers' organization that operates for agricultural welfare. Its Washington representative keeps you in touch with new or proposed laws and their effect on your business. News of notable Grange achievement, of cooperation among farmers and of all vital agricultural activities comes to you every Thursday through its pages. Its editorials, its humor, its "Brighten the Corner" pages; its "Handy Farm Mechanics" Department, its cheery covers and trim appearance make THE COUNTRY GENTLEMAN worth many times the one lone dollar it costs you for 52 issues. GREENWOOD

Albert J. Felt

The death of Albert J. Felt occurred February 13, at his home in Portland. Mr. Felt was born March 4, 1864 at Portland, the son of Jesse and Jane (Dowle) Felt. He lived in Greenwood for a number of years during childhood.

On the sixteenth day of March, 1892, Albert J. Felt and Sophia Johnson were married. Mrs. Felt is a native of the kingdom of Sweden. A son, Clifford, was his father's constant companion. The wife, son, and two brothers, Charles and Frank Felt, both survive.

While but a lad, Mr. Felt was apprenticed to a house-painter and learned that trade together with the trade of paper-hanging and interior decorating. These trades he followed for several years. In recent years Mr. Felt was engaged in the real estate business, owning several tenements in Portland. Every enterprise for community betterment found a hearty support and sympathy with Mr. Felt. In his religious belief he was a Methodist and was a member, and up to the very last was a regular attendant at the services, of the Washington Avenue Methodist Episcopal Church. He had been for several years and was, at the time of his death a member of its board of trustees. The responsibilities of this office he took very much to heart, spending and being spent in the service of his church.

Though Mr. Felt was a man of retiring disposition, his genial nature and constant desire to be of service to somebody made even the most casual meeting productive of friendships. The children of the community were always subjects of his special interest and generosity. His services with auto were in great demand for picnic and camping trips, these requests were seldom refused and his willing services were usually accompanied by some generous gift to make more enjoyable the special occasion.

The funeral was held from the Washington Avenue Methodist Episcopal Church, the pastor of the church, Rev. M. Gerry Plummer, officiating assisted by a former pastor of the church, Rev. L. S. Staples. Music, of which Mr. Felt was very fond, was furnished by the choir of the church. The floral tributes were many and beautiful.

THIS YOUNG MOTHER

Tells Childless Women What
Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Did for Her

Millston, Wis.—“I want to give you a word of praise for your wonderful medicine. We are very fond of children and for a considerable time after we married I feared I would not have any owing to my weak condition. I began taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and now I have a nice strong healthy baby girl. I can honestly say that I did not suffer much more when my baby was born than I used to suffer with my periods before I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound years ago. I give all the credit to your medicine and shall always recommend it very highly.”—Mrs. H. H. JANSSEN, Millston, Wisconsin.

How can women who are weak and sickly expect or hope to become mothers of healthy children? Their first duty is to themselves. They should overcome the derangement or debility that is dragging them down, and strengthen the entire system, as did Mrs. Janssen, by taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and then they will be in a position to give their children the blessing of a good constitution.

Announcement and Explanation

Have opened a first class grocery store in the building formerly occupied by Howard L. Drake and will carry standard goods at a reasonable price. My aim will be to serve the public in every possible way.

To correct numerous misleading statements in circulation, I wish to present these facts. We purchased the property of Foster Jackson on January 23, at which time the occupant was given until March 1 to vacate. Finding the store still occupied on that date, we allowed seven days grace or until March 7. Not until then were we able to enter for the extensive repairs which have been necessary. Believing we have been fair in the matter and not transgressed business ethics nor the statutes in taking over our purchase, we leave the question to the judgment of every fair-minded person.

THE TEACHER'S OPPORTUNITY
The strength of the United States depends upon the practical patriotism and sound economic thought of her future citizens. These characteristics must be developed in the daily life of the school.
Economists agree that the universal adoption of habits of intelligent saving will strengthen our nation tremendously.
When every wage earner has a reserve fund of money the country will be sound economically, socially and politically.

The teacher who encourages pupils to earn money and to invest in Thrift Stamps and War Savings Stamps is doing much for their economic strength and practical patriotism.

Each child who buys stamps feels a partnership in the country's growth and the wisdom of investing his money in the securities that are absolutely safe; he becomes familiar in a practical way with compound interest; and as he sticks stamp after stamp upon the card, he has a visual demonstration of how savings grow.

Faith without works is dead. Thrift without safe investment such as Government Saving Securities, is robbed of its benefits. Its virtue lies not only in its principles but in the actual practise of investment.

Each year thousands of boys and girls in the United States are deprived of a college education because they lack money. You can remedy this situation among by starting them on the road to saving early in life and encouraging them to safeguard these savings in Government securities. You are rendering a real service to your country by promoting the sale of these stamps. The burden of our debt still is heavy and the government must still borrow money.

"You can fool a man, but you can't fool his cow!"

It is not the cost of a feed that is killing the farmer and reducing his profits. The real source of his trouble is his failure to run his cows to full capacity and feeding them right and decently. Cows that could give 40 lbs. of milk are running on a 20-lb. basis, and cows that could make 30 lbs. are running on 15.

The reason dairymen continue to use UNICORN is because they get enough more milk and enough more profit out of it to make it worth their while.

ACHING JOINTS AND SORE MUSCLES ARE SIGNALS OF DANGER

Don't Let Rheumatism Strengthen Its Grip on You—Fight It with Goldine No. 2

Mr. Robert F. Bennett, of 943 Water St., Watertown, N. H., had trouble for more than a year with rheumatism, which set in the muscles of his right foot. He could not stand upon that foot. For a long time he was laid up and couldn't do any work. His appetite was poor, also, his back lame and he was troubled with bloating. Nothing seemed to help him until he was laid up. Then he tried it. After taking two bottles he was able to do a good day's work and to walk around with comfort. He says Goldine was worth its weight in gold to him.

Hark, Hark! The dogs will bark.
The beggars are coming to town,
Some in rags, some in bags,
And some in buckles and bows.
Thus read the poster on the Library door and surely the dogs would have barked if they had caught a glimpse of the crowd assembled at the poverty social Saturday evening, March 5. After the entertainment came the costume march. The judges declared that it was difficult to decide on the worst looking costumes, but they finally chose four. The first prize went to Mrs. Bennett Wiley, the second to Mrs. Peter Wood, third to Edward Loring and the fourth to Fairfield Edwards.

Music for the games and dance was furnished by the Spurr's Corner Orchestra, consisting of piano, violin and cornet. Besides the ice cream, homemade candy in attractive rose baskets was sold. The proceeds of the evening amounted to about twenty-five dollars.

This entertainment was held at the Hall, given by the East Otisfield grammar school taught by Esther Morey of Spurr's Corner. She is one of our best teachers in town.

"NOTHING COULD HAVE DONE MORE"

Mrs. Munson Was So Greatly Benefited By Tanlac Her Mother Is Taking It

"Tanlac has been of such great benefit to me that my mother is now taking it and with splendid results," said Mrs. Margaret Munson, of 163 Washington Ave., Portland, Me.

"For more than a year I had been suffering with a bad case of indigestion and I was simply in miserable health. I never touched a bite of anything for breakfast and what I ate at other times was the lightest kind of food. Gas would form on my stomach and bloat me up terribly and give me awful pains and cramps. My blood was thin and my complexion was bad. I was subject to frequent severe headaches."

"I gradually grew worse until one day not long ago I had an acute attack of indigestion and I thought I was going to die. After I recovered from the attack I was worse off than ever."

"I had been hearing a lot about Tanlac and I am certainly glad I tried it, for now my appetite is just splendid and I am eating three good meals every day. The stomach trouble has all disappeared and my digestion was never better in my life. I am not troubled any more with headaches, my blood has been purified and my complexion has cleared up. I have gained nine pounds in weight and now have my usual strength and energy."

Tanlac is sold by A. L. Clark Drug Co., Norway; Stowell Bros., Locke's Mills; R. E. Pinkham, East Waterford; W. H. Brown, East Stoneham, Heald, Stearns & Kimball, Lovell, and H. L. Hutchins Co., North Fryeburg, Me.
